BOSTON:

WRIGHT & POTTER PRINTING CO., STATE PRINTERS, 18 Post Office Square. 1885.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Office of the Commissioners of Savings Banks, Commonwealth Building, Boston, Jan. 7, 1885.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives.

The Commissioners of Savings Banks have the honor to present their Ninth Annual Report for the consideration of the legislature.

There are 168 savings banks doing business in the Commonwealth, the same as last year.

The last legislature granted an act of incorporation for the Granite Savings Bank of Rockport. A meeting of the corporators has been holden, and the officers of the corporation have been chosen, but the bank has not yet been opened for the receipt of deposits.

During the year, final dividends of the receiverships of two insolvent savings banks have been allowed by the Supreme Judicial Court, — the North Bridgewater Savings Bank of Brockton and the Sandwich Savings Bank. The percentage of the final dividend to the depositors of the North Bridgewater Savings Bank was $6\frac{46}{100}$, which, with the previous dividends allowed, was $94\frac{46}{100}$ per cent. of the principal of the deposits.

The final dividend allowed to the depositors of the Sandwich Savings Bank was 6 per cent., which, including dividends previously paid, was 81 per cent. of the principal of the deposits.

There are still three receiverships, the settlement of the affairs of which are not sufficiently advanced to admit of the allowance of the final dividend, — those of the Scituate, Reading and Lancaster Savings banks.

The receivers of the Scituate and Reading Savings banks are waiting the decision by the courts of controverted legal questions. They will then be ready for an immediate settlement of the affairs of these banks.

The Lancaster Savings Bank was placed in the hands of receivers Dec. 30, 1875. No dividend has been paid to the depositors since October, 1878, more than six years. The receivers allege that the difficulty of disposing of a large parcel of unimproved real estate in the Dorchester district of Boston, at a price that is considered reasonable by them, has prevented the final settlement. We are, however, of the opinion that the settlement is unnecessarily protracted; that the property should be sold, either at private or public sale, for the most that it will bring, and the proceeds of the remaining assets distributed to the depositors during the coming spring.

On the next page is a tabular statement of some statistics relative to the insolvent savings banks.

* The receivers of these banks are paying the final dividend.

¹ In addition to this amount is the sum of $68,091, due from the late treasurer.

The amount of deposits in the Savings Banks doing business Oct. 31, 1884, was $262,720,146.97, being $10,112,553.95 more than at the same date of the previous year.

The surplus was $5,247,371.09, having increased $6,411.83 for the year.

The guaranty fund was $5,692,504.20, which was an increase of $892,208.47 for the year.

The number of open accounts was 826,008, an increase of 19,998 for the year; which would make the average of the accounts $318.06, an increase from the average of the previous year of $4.66.

The amount of deposits (including dividends) during the year was $59,613,618.38, an increase of $1,069,735.97 from the previous year, and the number of deposits (850,824) decreased 97,267. The average of deposits was $70.06. The average the previous year was $61.75, being an increase of $8.31 for the year.

The total of withdrawals was $49,066,544.53, an increase of $1,909,627.49 from that of the previous year. The number of withdrawals was 529,886, an increase of 49,661 from the previous year.

The average of the withdrawals was $92.60, a decrease of $5.60 from the previous year, when it was $98.20.

Investments in United States bonds have decreased $470,-714.10. State and municipal bonds have increased $4,517,-040.88. Loans on public funds have decreased $48,219.62.

Investments in bank stock have increased $220,272.61. Loans on bank stock have increased $70,189.91.

Investments in railroad bonds have increased $2,232,533.27.

Loans on mortgages of real estate have increased $6,619,-266.52, and $1,549,413.19 have been deducted from real estate acquired by foreclosure, which is $4,184,236.58.

Loans on personal security have increased $1,115,936.21. The deposits in banks bearing interest are $8,857,779.76, a decrease from the previous year of $2,825,179.70.

The percentage of assets in the various classes of investments is fifteen and five one-hundredths per cent. in public funds and loans on public funds; nine and ninety-seven one-hundredths per cent. in bank stock and loans on same; five and five one-hundredths per cent. in railroad bonds; thirty-six and fourteen one-hundredths per cent. in loans on mortgages of real estate; two and thirty-nine one-hundredths per cent. invested in real estate, including foreclosures; twenty-two and ninety-three one-hundredths per cent. in loans on personal security; three and sixty-one one-hundredths per cent. in loans to counties, cities and towns; three and twenty-four one-hundredths per cent. in deposits in banks on interest; one and fifty-nine one-hundredths per cent. in cash on hand and sundry items.

The earnings of the banks were $13,575,047.63—$487,-838.75 more than the previous year. The amount of dividends was $9,877,713.44, an increase of $342,322.08.

Twenty banks paid the highest rate of dividends allowed,—five per cent.; twenty-five banks paid dividends between four and five per cent.; one hundred and seventeen banks paid four per cent. dividends; three banks paid three and one-half per cent. dividends; two banks paid three per cent. dividends; and one bank, which was temporarily enjoined by a decree of the supreme judicial court, and is being wound up by its officers, paid no dividend of interest.

The average rate of ordinary dividends was four and fifteen one-hundredths per cent., or six one-hundredths per cent. more than the previous year.

In view of the prevailing financial and industrial depression, the prosperity of the savings banks during the past year is significant of the conservative management which has characterized these institutions since the passage of the general law of 1876.

LOAN AND TRUST COMPANIES.

There are eight of these companies, including the Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Company and the Collateral Loan Company, now doing business in the Commonwealth.

There are no special remarks to be made relative to any one of these companies.

The general bill in relation to "Loan and Trust Companies" reported to the last legislature by the Commissioners of Savings Banks and the Commissioner of Corporations, pursuant to instructions by the previous legislature, failed of adoption.

The conflicting views and interests of the different companies prevented any unity of action by them, and the Committee on Banks and Banking, to whom the report of the Commissioners was referred, reluctantly arrived at the conclusion that it would be inexpedient to press the passage of the bill at that time.

Co-operative Banks.

There are now twenty-six co-operative banks doing business in the Commonwealth, one more than last year.

The Weir Co-operative Bank was organized in the village of Weir, city of Taunton, and commenced business July 16, 1884.

The bill introduced into the last legislature to authorize cooperative banks to establish a guarantee fund failed to become a law. We are of the opinion that it would be found a salutary measure for the security of these institutions during periods of depression in values of real estate, and we recommend that such a law be enacted.

We also recommend that the general law regulating these banks be amended so as to provide for the consolidation of the offices of secretary and treasurer. Our experience in the supervision of these banks constantly tends to confirm us in the belief that the consolidation would operate for their better 1885.]

security and for the greater convenience of the shareholders, and all others having transactions with them, especially as the volume of their business increases.

This opinion is in harmony with that of most of the officers of these banks with whom we have conferred relative to this change.

These banks have generally enjoyed a prosperous year. They have increased their assets $500,660.77 during the year, which now amount to $1,971,923.20, as will be seen by the table of statistics relative to these institutions on the following page.

In the succeeding pages will be found a copy of the Public Statutes relative to savings banks, with such additions and amendments as have been made by the various legislatures to the present time.
